

CALLING ALL FLUTISTS!

Perform for the Mass Flute Appeal for Make Music New York!

WHO: Flutists of all ages and levels! That means YOU!

WHAT: Henry Brant's Mass in Gregorian Chant for Multiple Flutes

WHEN: Saturday, June 21st at 5 and 6 PM

WHERE: Central Park's Dalehead Arch (64th St. and West Drive)

HOW: All the details below!

Flutists of all ages, levels, and backgrounds are invited to join MMNY's Flute Mass Appeal featuring Henry Brant's Mass in Gregorian Chant for Multiple Flutes ("Mass for June 16").

Presented by Americas Society, this event will bring together flute players from all over NYC and beyond for two full performances of Henry Brant's masterwork, in Central Park, on the 30th anniversary of the piece's premiere. The Mass is scored for as many flutists as possible, with approximately a fifth doubling on piccolo, all playing material provided in the Graduale Romanum for masses sung on June 16.

The Mass Flute Appeal performances will take place in Central Park's resonant Dalehead Arch (64th St. and West Drive), at 5 and 6 PM on Saturday, June 21st.

Flutists are required to attend at least two evening rehearsals on June 9, 11, 14, and 17 at 7 PM (location TBD) and the Dress Rehearsal on June 19th at 7 PM in Central Park.
