

Our corporate members are a premier group of over 230 private sector organizations which share a commitment to economic and social development, open markets, rule of law, and democracy in the region.

Corporate member benefits are extended to employees across the Americas.

BENEFITS

	ELITE $30,000 / year	STANDARD $15,000 / year
Exclusive invitations to substantially all private programs with world leaders	✓
Preferred invitations for select senior executives to off-the-record, private meetings with government officials, business and cultural leaders	✓
Preferential seating at select programs, events, and conferences	✓
Preferred position on Q&A sessions in virtual programs	✓
Assistance in establishing contacts to further business interests	✓
Opportunity to rent AS/COA HQ facilities at a reduced member rate plus overhead expenses, once per year, based on availability, and thereafter at member rates	✓
Member discounts to public programs throughout the Western Hemisphere, including our Washington Conference and COA Symposium & BRAVO Business Awards Gala in Miami*	✓	✓
Opportunity to serve as moderator, speaker or panelist in relevant programs, if appropriate.	✓	✓
Invitations to over 200 complimentary private programs throughout the region	✓	✓
Opportunity to sponsor private programs, working groups, series, and conferences	✓	✓
Acknowledgement as a corporate member in the AS/COA Annual Report, website, and collateral materials	✓	✓
Exclusive member rates for advertising and sponsored content in Americas Quarterly and on AQ Online	✓	✓
Opportunity to join COA working groups	✓	✓
Opportunity to participate in programs via conference calls and Webex when available	✓	✓
Complimentary admission for senior level executives to AS VIP gallery openings and events	✓	✓
Print subscriptions of Americas Quarterly and exclusive member rates for advertising and sponsored content	5	3
Memberships in our Young Professionals of the Americas (YPA) initiative for rising young leaders	5	3

*free of charge for members in 2020